Mr. Emory, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report, as amended:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Rezin Davis, report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and are of opinion that a law ought to pass, extending for one year the petitioner's time of collecting balances due him as collector for the year 1797.

By order,

J. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read.

The report on the memorial of David Kerr was read the second time, and the question put, That the house assent to the resolution therein contained? Determined in the negative.

The following question being propounded to the house, was read.

On the second reading the report on the memorial of David Kerr, of Talbot county, RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this house, that inasmuch as it is incompatible with the situation of the finances of this state to grant general indemnity to all the sufferers in the late war, to grant particular relief to individual sufferers in particular cases, to the injury of some in preference of the rest, is improper and unjust.

On motion, the question was put, That the further consideration of the said resolution be postponed? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
